

Manager of Global Indirect Commodities

Indirect commodities expert with proven leadership skills is needed to:

- Oversee the indirect spend for a global enterprise with manufacturing sites all over the world
- Determine strategic direction for close to $1/2B spend
- Develop and to execute sourcing strategies to create value and positively impact the bottom-line
- Manage and mentor the Indirect Commodity team.
- Continuously improve supply chain management: RFI/RFP, supplier choice, negotiations, eProcurement, risk assessment, contract development etc.
- Present new programs and financially justify programs to Senior Management.

Qualifications:

- BS degree expected, masters degree preferred, certifications are an asset
- Considerable experience managing an indirect commodities group in a global organization
- Expertise in indirect commodity management for a global enterprise
- Significant experience setting the strategic indirect commodity direction for a global, multi-site corporation
- Prior experience managing direct reports for Professional Services, MRO, IT HW/SW, Travel, Fleet, Logistics, and Capital categories.
- Skilled in using diverse E sourcing tools
- Past extensive fiscal commodity management responsibility
- Impressive and quantifiable track record of inventive sourcing solutions; LEAN / 6 sigma is an advantage

Location: Lexington / Billerica area, MA

Compensation: base into the low 100's with management bonus potential

-Leslie

Leslie Gabriele

Gabriele & Company

Recruiters for Manufacturing and Materials

www.gabrieleandcompany.com

781-276-7999

leslie@gabrieleandcompany.com

<http://www.linkedin.com/in/gabrieleandcompany>