

The client is a well established organization with a solid reputation in their market place. They are performing and expect 2010 to be a year of growth and expansion.

DIRECTOR OF GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAIN

This executive will provide strategic and operational leadership in inventory, sourcing, logistics and procurement:

- Identify and maintain qualified vendors to ensure uninterrupted material flow
- Lead and mentor and train procurement and logistics personnel
- Develop supplier partnership programs
- Improve supplier performance, reduce costs, improve quality, increase inventory turns
- Implement demand pull supply system
- Create strategic sourcing strategies and be closely involved in their implementation

Must Have Qualifications:

- BS degree; mechanical engineering degree is preferred
- Recent 5 years manufacturing in turnkey Supply Chain Management
- Supply chain management experience in purchasing, planning and logistics
- Knowledgeable in some of these processes: machining, plating, casting, forging etc.
- Ability to read mechanical prints
- Proven negotiation and contract development skills
- Experience in ramping up supply chains in over in Asia
- History of selecting, qualifying, auditing and maintaining mechanical suppliers in low cost regions
- Systems savvy: ERP, databases, pivot tables, spreadsheets etc.
- Demonstrated management skills: train and develop staff; manage budgets
- Up to 25% international travel required

Compensation: into the low 100's

Location: Weymouth / Milton MA area. Relocation is not available.

-Leslie

Leslie Gabriele

Gabriele & Company

Recruiters for Manufacturing and Materials

www.gabrieleandcompany.com

781-276-7999

leslie@gabrieleandcompany.com

<http://www.linkedin.com/in/gabrieleandcompany>