

A multimillion dollar, mechanical manufacturer with 7 decades of consistently delivering premiere products.

Design Engineering/ NPI Manager

The Design Engineering/ NPI Manager assists daily operation of department and directs the technical aspects of New Product designs from inception through manufacturing. Works closely Director to ensure the department operates smoothly. This is a hands on manager who can design and introduce new products.

- Working closely with Director to coordinate new product development workloads and help integrate into the overall workload
- Review product designs for feasibility, technical capabilities and manufacturability
- Work with various Engineers, Designers and Draftsmen and Technicians to maintain program schedules and budgets as required
- Review capacity and capability requirements for all new products
- Plan material requirements for new products
- Assist Manufacturing Personnel in generating manufacturing and process plan for new products
- Assist with administrative functions, reviews and project budgets
- Train, implement and oversee NPI process

Position requirements:

- BS ME
- This is a hands on product design job requiring recent design / NPI experience in stampings, permanent mold, machining, injection molding
- Pro E & Solid Works. Proven NPI skills.
- Ability to create, implement and train in DFM
- Recent 10+ years in mechanical product design and development in a project engineering capacity.
- Proficiency using windows P.C. applications including project scheduling software
- Extensive knowledge of general management principles, including operations management, process planning, marketing, accounting, and organizational behavior.

Compensation: $80-115 base salary

Location: Randolph / Weymouth MA area, relocation is not offered

- Leslie

Leslie Gabriele

Gabriele & Company

Recruiters for Manufacturing and Materials

www.gabrieleandcompany.com

781-276-7999

leslie@gabrieleandcompany.com

<http://www.linkedin.com/in/gabrieleandcompany>